HCMS's PTSO presents: Title I Night

Hertford County Middle School's Parent Teacher Student Organization (PTSO) presents Title I night on Wednesday, October 23, 2013 at the school cafeteria. Part of the Hertford County Middle School Vision Statement is that student achievements are celebrated and that students demonstrate pride in their school. Both were evident and in full force during the Title I Parent Night.

With packed agenda, the night kicked off with the presentation of and induction of the 2013-2014 PTSO officers – Kimberly Scott, President; Sherrie Jager and Wanda Hunter, Vice-Presidents; Tamara Joyner and Alexandria Pearson, Secretaries; Lori Merritt and Kitrena Wiggins, Treasurers; and Tony Simmons, Public Relations Officer. Immediately following, Dr. Slade and Mr. Pitpit, presented Title I overview and how it impacts students at HCMS, and the most recent results of students STAR Reader.

Mission

To provide highly engaging instructional programs that will allow all students to be globally competitive citizens.

HCMS offers a plethora of activities, in which students may choose to participate. The athletic department represented by two student-athletes, Jalisia Allen and Emily Futrell, shared their stories on the importance of athletics in their lives as students. Following, the student presentations for athletics, the crowd heard three selections from Mr. Reid and the HCMS band.

HCMS also provides students with multiple options for joining clubs and organizations. The Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) club inducted new students into the organization bringing it's total membership to 91 for the 2013-2014 school year. Emily Futrell was elected President of FBLA and Asia Barber recited the FBLA Creed while the new inductees followed.

The HCMS Cheerleaders performed several selections under the leadership of teacher and coach Ms. McEachin.

Wrapping up the night, a video on the importance of parental involvement in the school systems was shown. Ms. McFate, Media Coordinator, presented families with the opportunity to volunteer and Dr. Slade gave closing remarks.

Organizations Offered:

Football, Baseball, Basketball, Softball, Track & Field, Cheerleading, Volleyball, Soccer, Yearbook, Spelling Bee, Jr. Beta Club, Robotics (Robo Bears), Relay for Life, Battle of the Books, SGA, Band, Chorus, FBLA, Teen Court, BOSS, SASS

HCMS is always looking for parent volunteers.
